

London Borough of Ealing

About

The London Borough of Ealing is located in West London. It is the 3rd largest Borough in terms of population and the 11th largest in size. The London Borough of Ealing's priorities as a council include its local community and the services that they provide to its residents. Ealing are currently running numerous residential regeneration programmes within the area and have achieved 'outstanding' in the Ofsted inspection for the service they deliver within the Borough.

Our service

Adecco provide a high level and transparent full-managed service to Ealing, making the Account team a true extension of the councils HR service. They support the Borough in managing all of their temporary staffing requirements, reducing the administrative burden on the Hiring Managers. The quality of staff and the market knowledge available via the Adecco contract enables the council to focus on the Borough's core objectives and the services that they provide to the local community.

The benefits

Social and economic value

The local delivery model ensures Adecco can generate local opportunities. Adecco places significant importance on ensuring job opportunities are available to local people so develop initiatives to ensure we are continuously attracting local talent for positions with our clients. In addition to this, they also engage local SMEs to form part of our supply chain to ensure economic growth within our clients' communities.

Audit and compliance

Adecco delivers a comprehensive compliance process, ensuring 100% compliance ahead of a candidate's start date. Compliance is checked stringently via our dedicated Public Sector Compliance team. The compliance criteria supports the Borough's internal enhanced vetting process and full visibility is given throughout, ensuring a transparent process and a fully compliant workforce.

Bespoke Management Information

During the implementation process, Adecco work with clients to develop bespoke management information that is of true value. They spend time understanding what is of key importance to ensure this is reflected in the information delivered. Adecco have a comprehensive reporting suite within the system that can generate a variety of automated reports.
